SigmaStrat announces accreditation by the International Association for Six Sigma Certification (IASSC), a Professional Association dedicated to growing and enhancing the standards within the Lean Six Sigma Community.

NAIROBI, Kenya -- Taking our place among the top four(4) Lean Six Sigma Accredited Training Organisations in Africa, the Accredited Training Organization Program speaks to the quality of the organization, its instructors and the training programs it offers. This accreditation ensures that the training programs offered by the provider are consistent with the standards established by the industry and that the organization is competent in its ability to deliver those programs.

This is an important milestone in the continuing growth and success of our organization. Pursuing this accreditation shows our commitment to providing the highest standards of Lean Six Sigma training and deployment to our clients and exhibiting the same high level of quality in our business practices. Achieving accreditation by IASSC is proof that we have met the rigorous standards of an internationally recognized third party.

“We believe that our clients deserve the best,” stated E. Kweku Haizel, Director at SigmaStrat, and we are proud to have met the challenge of accreditation, and intend to consistently uphold the standards.

Status as an accredited organisation means that our training and delivery has been assess as being robust and consistent with global best practices and standards within the Lean Six Sigma Community. Further, that our instructors are competent to instruct the methodology, that the course content is consistent with the industry’s generally accepted Bodies of Knowledge as characterized by IASSC and that our standards are consistent with the principles of the IASSC Code of Ethics.

The International Association for Six Sigma Certification (IASSC) is a Professional Association dedicated to growing and enhancing the standards within the Lean Six Sigma Community. IASSC is the only independent third-party certification body within the Lean Six Sigma Industry that exclusively facilitates centralized universal Lean Six Sigma Certification Standards Testing and Organizational Accreditations.
