SigmaStrat has expanded its operations into East Africa as part of the firm's plans to boost its African reach. The Kenyan office serves as its East African hub and drive continuous corporate performance improvement among corporates in the region.

The indigenous African firm is a leading Management consulting firm with its head office based in Ghana, West Africa. With the Kenyan office now in place, SigmaStrat seeks to consolidate efforts for massive impact on the entire continent.

SigmaStrat will offer its clients in the East African sub-region a whole new dimension of Continuous Corporate Performance Improvement through their management consulting and tailor-made training services. The firm has created a niche for supporting our clients in our Continuous Improvement Journey by supporting clients through our services in Team development (People), Process optimization, and the effective use of Technology to enhance corporate performance.

"We have had tremendous success over the last few years and we continue to see potential for more growth in Africa," notes E. Kweku Haizel, Director. "The new office allows us to build the market, promote the SigmaStrat brand and provide Africa with a new level of Continuous Corporate Performance Improvement support that SigmaStrat is known for in the market."
